

Bonsai Work Shop in Chico

With Bonchi Bonsai Sensei Matthew Walker

Through the efforts of society member Joel Rainey, a hands-on workshop will be offered in Chico in February. Matthew Walker, a renowned bonsai sensei, will venture up from Fairfield, to give six people 8 hours of instruction and assistance with their bonsai trees.

The workshop is not affiliated with the Chico Bonsai Society and is offered to anyone in the area who is interested in improving their bonsai skills.

There are still spots available. To reserve your spot, contact Joel to get on the reservation list. If the classes are full, you will be listed as an alternate in case a spot opens up.

To keep your spot:

To finalize your reservation, a minimum payment of $50 is due at the society meeting on November 13th with John McDonald or with Joel if you are attending the Pacific Bonsai Expo. The other $50 is due at our December meeting [December 11th]. Payment is by cash, check, or Venmo. [checks made out to Joel Rainey c/o Bonchi Bonsai]. Joel also says he can also except Paypal if you come unprepared without cash, check, Venmo or sea shells!! If you will not be attending either venue, or have questions, call or email Joel [see Tentative Details above].

Important: Because the cost of the work shop is equally divided by all participants, no refunds will be available if you decide not to attend or are unable to attend.
